

Matthew Walsh

35 Wisteria Parade, Edgewater, WA 6027 +0422 900 568
Matthewwalsh1190@gmail.com

Profile

A well motivated worker with over 10 years experience working predominately in manufacturing high pressure corrosion resistant steels. I have a high attention to detail and am meticulous about my work, having been responsible for the final checks of products used for the food, petrochemical and military industries.

Work History

2012-2022 Trade Assistant/Lab Supervisor Terrill Bros (Founders) Ltd

- Carried out destructive & non destructive testing on cast metal parts to certify them to customer requirements
- Perform day to day maintenance and calibration of shop floor machinery
- Fettleing, Hydraulic Pressing & Shot/Sand Blasting of cast products
- Managed staff within the finishing stages of production to ensure dispatch of required products on time

2023-2025 HR Driver/Offsider Aussie Plasterboard

- Hand unloading of building materials onto building sites ranging from small renovations to multiplex skyscrapers
- Making up of jobs in the warehouse, loading jobs onto the trucks & ensuring they are correctly secured
- Customer Service for customer collections

Education

2009-2012 Bachelor of Materials and Science Engineering

Swansea University, United Kingdom

2014 SNT Level II Dye Penetrant testing & inspection

Lavender International Testing, Sheffield

2016 SNT Level II Radiographic testing & inspection

Lavender International Testing, Sheffield

2018 PCN Radiation Protection Supervisor

Lavender International Testing, Sheffield

Information

- Moved to Australia with a working holiday visa on 26/10/22, in the process of applying for permanent residency with a 189 skilled works visa

Languages: English

Skills

- HR-U Licence with no demerits
- White Card
- Working at Heights & Confined Spaces
- First Aid
- Experience using gantry cranes
- UK & WA Forklift Tickets, with 10 years experience
- Computer competent
- Good Level of Physical Fitness

Hobbies

Hiking
Snorkelling